IMPORTANT—Please Read!

The war is NOT OVER until the war bills have been paid—let us make no mistake about this.

The Victory Liberty Loan is coming—we will have a chance to test our patriotism—to prove that it did not die out as soon as the bands quit playing.

Our war cost was tremendous—every available factory was turned into Government service. The complete forces of America were mobilized and it was worth all it cost. The war is over a year before experts expected, undoubtedly saving millions of young American lives. Here are some facts that will interest you:

- 1.—While only about 300,000 Americans actually reached the front, we had 3,000,000 men in the process of becoming “fighting devils.”
- 2.—We pledged 600,000 soldiers to be in France by July, 1918. On that date we had 1,900,000 men on French soil.
